

Clinical Engineer

Life Brenthurst Clinic

Introduction	An exciting opportunity has arisen at Life Brenthurst Clinic, Parktown, Jhb, for a Clinical Engineer reporting to the Services Manager. This job entails the optimisation and management of medical equipment, from acquisition through to eventual disposal, on a regional level. It includes all aspects of medical equipment maintenance.	Position No: 50054725 Closing date: 29 August 2008
Critical Outputs	Establishing and maintaining an accurate inventory of all medical equipment. Accurate record keeping of all inspections, tests and repairs. Executing planned preventative maintenance on all medical equipment. Diagnosing and trouble shooting medical equipment failure. Liaising with vendors for repairs and services, keeping up-to-date with technical advances. Training of medical staff on correct, safe and responsible usage of medical equipment. Working towards an improved hospital maintenance service as an integral part of the maintenance team. Computer skills in Microsoft Office – Outlook, MS Excel, MSWord, PowerPoint .	Contact details: Linden Morgan Tel: (011) 647 9056 Fax: (086) 552 7953 Krishi.Gopaul@lifehealthcare.co.za Distribution: Gauteng Before making application, you are requested to discuss this with your immediate line manager Life Healthcare is an Equal Opportunity Employer External candidates will also be considered
Requirements	Required qualification is either a Clinical Engineer Diploma (S4), or an Electronic Engineering Diploma with at least 3 years experience on the repair and maintenance of Medical Equipment. The successful candidate must display the following competencies: initiative; the ability to inspire professionalism; attention to detail; strong results orientation, and excellent communication skills.	