

NOTICE FOR ALL NOTICE BOARDS

A vacancy exists in Stryker South Africa for the position of

Service technician: Technical Services Department

Reports to : Technical Services Manager

Position Purpose : Service and maintain all Instruments, Tools and other technical products sold by Stryker SA

Principal Accountabilities:

- Strip and evaluate relevant item for repair
- Furnish quote on repairs
- Handle physical repairs of items using items provided
- Compiling brief technical report on the repairs
- Ensure that the repair complies with certain quality standards (IEC 6001, Manufacturing procedures set by manufacturers and Stryker policies and procedures)
- Assess and quote on customer product repairs
- Repair customer product upon receiving approval of the repair from customer
- Performing preventative maintenance duties on the scheduled repairs
- Liaise with internal and external customers
- Receive a request from either internal or external customers to supply backup equipment to the customer
- Ensuring that the faulty item is collected from the customer

Background Experience / Qualifications:

- N6 Diploma in Electronics
- 1-2 years technical experience
- Diploma in Clinical Engineering will be advantageous
- Technical background or medical devices background will be advantageous.

Job Requirement:

- Be willing to travel; Work after hours; and Work against deadlines

Applications should be forwarded to Gerhard Eloff (gerhard.elloff@stryker.com), Technical Services Manager, before the 30th November 2007.

Iain Murray
OPERATIONS MANAGER

19th November 2007